

1. Done in QGIS. Clip data, so that we only have data for mainland US. First, select the data for mainland US using “select features by rectangle” tool. Second, right click on layer and select “save selection as” from menu. Note to change the CRS to WGS84, as shown in figure below. Output is called census_county_clip.shp.

